A professional Aalim Bellydancer can bring your entertainment to the next level of beauty and the exotic.

What Does a Bellydancer Do?

How long is the show? A typical show is between 25 - 40 minutes. The dancer may use finger cymbals, swords, veils, and candles. When appropriate, the show may include audience participation, for example, the guest of honor may be asked to belly dance!

Is it appropriate for children? Yes, the belly dance show is family friendly. Children often love to dance, too!

Will she bring music? The belly dancer provides an Arabic music CD and the venue should provide the sound system (louder is better). Usually the dancer will stay out of sight until the CD has begun playing. Arrangements can be made if a sound system is unavailable.

What kind of shows does she do?

Our shows include surprise birthday or special event parties, and we call these bellygrams. Other shows include cultural parties, corporate entertainment, children's birthday parties or any event you wish to have outstanding entertainment.

Absolutely NO bachelor parties, though! Remember, we're good, clean fun!

Is tipping appropriate?

Yes. Unless the host has requested otherwise, the dancer will gladly accept tips. Tips may be tucked into the dancer's belt, or thrown above her head as a "money shower."
